PROJECTS

Tack (Rails, ReactJS, Redux, JavaScript, HTML5, CSS3, SASS, PostgreSQL, Webpack, jQuery)

live | github

A pixel perfect clone of the popular messaging service, Slack

- Implemented channels with full CRUD functionality and custom routes to separate conversations by topic, team, or project
- Ensured user privacy by integrating user authentication on the backend with BCrypt and React Router on the frontend to persist login with session cookies
- Leveraged Rail's Action Cable and Redis to utilize web socket connections for live-chat

Rations (MongoDB, Express, Node.JS, ReactJS, Redux, JavaScript, HTML5, CSS3, Git)

live | github

An application that allows users to search for recipes by ingredients

- Requested data from the Spoonacular API to populate the page with recipes based on user input
- Established an efficient connection between the Express and MongoDB backend and the React and Redux frontend
- Incorporated pair-programming and Git version control with 3 software engineers to maintain a clean codebase and enhance team workflow amongst the frontend and backend teams

CSS Demos (CSS3, HTML5, JavaScript, Webpack, Git)

live | github

A site that demonstrates the potential of CSS and the interactions between CSS and JavaScript

- Combined DOM manipulation and CSS3 transform property to produce a tilting effect based on mouse location
- Utilized CSS3 properties such as transform and transition to animate HTML5 elements that react to mouse hover
